

PROFILE

Ram Mudholkar
President, DuPont South Asia

Ramkrishna (Ram) Mudholkar is President, DuPont South Asia and Regional Business Director, DuPont Crop Protection, company's largest business unit in India. He is also Chairman of the Board, E.I. DuPont India Private Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of DuPont.

Ram has been with DuPont India since 1995 holding various leadership positions and brings in a wealth of experience to this role. He has worked for over 31 years in the agricultural input industry that includes crop protection chemicals and seeds. As a business director, he once led the crop protection business across ASEAN and South Asia as well as managed DuPont's Soy protein business in South Asia for three years. Ram also spent two years during 1998-2000 at the DuPont headquarters in Delaware, US working on international projects.

Prior to joining DuPont, he worked for another leading multinational, Hoechst AgrEvo India for 11 years and served in different roles in the agriculture sector.

Ram is a Director on Board of CropLife India and was recently conferred the award for 'Distinguished Contribution to Agrochemicals Industry' by FICCI. He did his Bachelor of Science in Agriculture from Andhra Pradesh Agricultural University and Master of Business Administration from Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad.